SEE THE DESERT
MRS. McCORMICK WINS
INSIDE WET, OUTSIDE DRY
MR. SLOAN'S FLOURINE

By Arthur Brisbane—

THE beautiful Mojave desert country of California is covered, for miles in all directions, with wild flowers, yellow, blue, purple, scarlet. The tall Spanish bayonet plants carry huge white blossoms, each protected by a circle of sharp bayonets. The Joshua trees growing above 4,000 feet elevation, spread their heavily flowering branches in eccentric fashions. Big desert turtles are out, in pairs. This is their sentimental season. Jack rabbits are fat and run slowly, thanks to abundant fillaree and other desert grasses born of the scant desert rain.

THE alfalfa fields, irrigated from wells tapping the underground Mojave river at the rate of 500 pounds of water for every pound of alfalfa harvested, look like a thick, dark green velvet carpet. Louis Weiss of Victorville is now laying, for the writer of this column, 12-inch cement pipe for more alfalfa sales. It does not pay an absentee farmer. But this part of California produces the finest alfalfa hay grown anywhere in America. Sold here at $22 a ton, it is 100 per cent better than alfalfa that costs the writer $40 a ton for horse feed in New Jersey.

Come to California on your way west to see a beautiful part of America and breathe wonderful air from the Pacific ocean which is 70 miles west of here, and 2,500 feet lower than this high desert land.

BUT DO NOT COME to make money in real estate for you will not do that. It is a place to invest, if you enjoy changing desert sand into green alfalfa fields. But the investment will yield only satisfaction, "one self-approving hour," in place of money.

MRS. RUTH HANNA McCORMICK's victory in the Illinois primary election is doubly satisfactory. It will send an intelligent hard-working, ambitious woman to the senate, which ought to have one good woman from each state. And it tells the blind of Washington and elsewhere that this country is against the league of nations-world court nonsense and wants no European entanglements. Mrs. McCormick vigorously opposed the league throughout the campaign. Her opponent for the Republican nomination was all for the league, and he stays at home, to think it over.

Among others of our great industrialists, Alfred P. Sloan Jr., head of General Motors, appropriates millions each year for scientific research. Thanks to this wise and profitable course, followed by the nation's great corporations, Steel, Standard Oil, etc., important discoveries are made in many directions.

A GENERAL MOTORS laboratory, devoted to improving artificial refrigeration, the mechanical ice box, has produced a new substance called fluorine, a combination of fluorine, chlorine and methane. Poured into a receptacle, the fluorine "boiled" at a temperature 18 degrees below zero.

DR. MIDGLEY whose research work is sponsored and financed by Mr. Sloan placed his face above the fluorine allowing its fumes to enter (Continued on Page 4)

Walker and George At State Meetings

At the suggestion of the state tax commission, county auditors and treasurers are meeting at Columbus for two days. Auditor Elmer E. Walker and Treasurer Fred George of Columbiana county are attending this session.

While in Columbus, both officials will attend the annual meeting of the County Auditors association and also the County Treasurers association.

Unemployment In New York Small

NEW YORK, April 10.—Census statistics in New York today showed that unemployment was not widespread and that only five or six per cent in every hundred were out of work. Although prevented by law from giving out exact figures, census officials said that analysis of questionnaires indicated that the census would show a small percentage of unemployed.

STOCK MARKET SHOWS SHARP RISE

NEW INJUNCTION DELAYS MERGER OF STEEL FIRMS

Proxy Voting Tied Up By Ruling of Court At Late Hour

TO MEET AGAIN THIS AFTERNOON

Contended Votes Plenty To Swing Merger, Is Claim

(By The Associated Press)
YOUNGSTOWN, April 10.—A new battle deadlocked the proposed Youngstown Sheet and Tube-Bethlehem Steel Corporation merger today as combatants dug in for a possible decisive engagement.

A temporary injunction which the opposition forces sought to make permanent today tied up voting of proxies which financial observers agreed was sufficient to swing victory to either side.

Upon this injunction suit depending whether approximately 125,000 shares could be voted, it was estimated by attorneys for Cyrus S. Eaton, Cleveland financier.

The action, brought late yesterday to invalidate voting of 10,038 shares held by Otis and company, an Eaton concern, was amended last night to include all shares sold without proxies since Sheet and Tube books closed March 22. Former owners of the Otis block had given their proxies to the merger proponents.

Eaton forces estimated the total number of shares affected by the amendment was increased to 125,000—more than enough with the 310,000 shares directly controlled by Eaton and his associates to block the deal. To win they need less than 400,000 shares, or one third of the approximately 1,200,000 shares outstanding.

Confronted with last night's new challenge, proponents of the consolidation recessed the stockholders' meeting until 4 p. m. today and announced they would ask Common Pleas Judge C. S. Turnbaugh to dissolve the injunction.

New Aerial Beacon Will Guide Fliers In 300-Mile Radius

CHICAGO, April 10.—Lindbergh light, an aerial beacon 600 feet above Michigan avenue atop the Palmolive building, will be built this spring.

In disclosing the plans yesterday, Elmer Sperry, its inventor and donor, said the two billion candle power beam will enable pilots to read charts 50 miles away.

Although its radius is 500 miles, Sperry said pilots even 300 miles away will be unable to see the light, unless at a high altitude, because of the curvature of the earth.

The light will also serve as a guide to Lake Michigan mariners.

FIRE DESTROYS FARM DWELLING

Home of L. G. Hull, North of Salem, Burned to Ground Last Night

The farm residence of L. G. Hull, located on the Patmos rd. four miles north of Salem, was destroyed by fire about 8 p. m. Wednesday.

The fire is believed to have resulted from a defective chimney. It started near the roof and spread to other sections of the dwelling before it could be extinguished.

Neighbors assisted Mr. and Mrs. Hull in removing furniture and household goods but they were unable to prevent destruction of the home. Lack of water made it impossible to combat the blaze which was fanned by a wind.

Mr. and Mrs. Hull and family of five children were at home when the blaze was discovered.

Degrees Conferred By Knights Templar

The red cross degree was conferred on six candidates at a meeting of Salem commandery No. 42, Knights Templar, Tuesday evening at Masonic temple.

On April 16 the Malta degree will be conferred. The members plan to attend the Good Friday service at the First Presbyterian church, April 18. On Easter the commandery will attend the morning service at the Methodist church, Lisbon.

The annual inspection is scheduled for May 13.

Sent to Pen

LIMA, April 10.—Pleading guilty to a charge of embezzling $20,000 in state funds 45 minutes after being indicted on payroll padding charges, Robert W. Fry, former assistant engineer for the state highway department, Lima district, was sentenced yesterday to five years in Ohio penitentiary.

Army Vets Seek Endurance Record

FOUR war aviators are planning to make the most unusual and daring endurance flight ever attempted. Under the leadership of Chief Pilot Donaldson they will start the flight at the Sunnyside Country club, at Eaton, N. J. Not only will the tanks of the endurance plane be refueled at regular intervals, but the pilot of the plane will be changed and a fresh one will replace him every fifty hours.

OIL MAN CAPTURED BY BANDITS RELEASED AS SON DELIVERS RANSOM

Chieftain of Mexican Gang Acts As Protector For American; Was Treated Well; Taught Poker While Prisoner; Banquet at End

(By The Associated Press)
SAN ANGELO, TEX., April 10.—Although J. E. Bristow, San Angelo oil and mining operator was held for ransom for nearly a month before he was freed by Mexican bandits, the kidnappers showed him every consideration, gave him the best of their food, and promised protection if he returned to the vicinity to operate his mineral properties.

Details of Bristow's imprisonment in the mountain fastness of Western Mexico, and of his subsequent release after his son, Gordon Obie Bristow, paid a ransom, were printed today in the San Angelo Morning-Times.

The mine operator was released yesterday near Ahuacatlan, Nayarit, after payment of $15,000 ransom.

Taught Poker Playing In return for their friendliness Bristow said he taught the bandits how to play poker.

On several occasions when his captors got drunk his life was in danger but each time he was protected by the chieftain, Cruz Delgado. During his entire captivity Bristow said he slept at Delgado's side.

When ransom negotiations were ended his captors celebrated with a party. Turkey's were killed, wine was procured and a feast prepared.

Then, as Bristow left, his captors all shook hands with him and told him if he would return to the mountains to work his mining property, they would see he was protected.

ILLNESS HALTS GANDHI'S DRIVE AGAINST RULER

Passive Resistance Over India Grows; Riots Are Reported

BOMBAY, April 10.—Mahatma Gandhi, called a halt today in his tour of the district north of Dandi because of illness.

The rigors of his work have weakened the frail leader of the Indian "independence campaign." He has made a valiant attempt to carry on his campaign but seems physically unequal to the task.

The independence movement throughout British-India inspired by Gandhi has reached a high degree of enthusiasm. Demonstrations have increased in size and fervor and have met with little police resistance as long as they remained orderly.

The independence leaders have been arrested, however, in all cases where violation of the salt manufacturing laws was concerned.

The situation at Nasik where many were injured last night in a clash between Higo caste Hindus and "untouchables" continued menacing today.

Police rounded up more than 4,000 "untouchables" encamped in the locality and moved them to safety some miles away amid jeers of the Hindus.

Despite the strong police guard many of the "untouchables" were taken from the ranks and mercilessly beaten.

The town was being patrolled today by rifle squads of police.

Fifty thousand Hindu pilgrims were in Nasik to attend the religious fair.

It is feared that the "untouchables" may try further demonstrations in interest of the Gandhi movement.

J. P. Allen Returns To Alliance Plant

ALLIANCE, O., April 10.—With in sight of the plant where he began his career 40 years ago, James P. Allen, former president and general manager of the Union Steel Casting company, of Pittsburgh, today returned to business as a new director and sales department counsel at the Machinist Steel Castings company, Alliance.

Allen was elected by the Alliance firm yesterday. He had retired from the Pittsburgh concern last year after a long career in the steel castings business.

EASTERN STARS OF DISTRICT IN GATHERING HERE

Mayor Davidson Welcome Visitors to Salem; Inspection Held

Mayor John Davidson welcomed the association of chapters of district 13, Order of the Eastern Star, to Salem, for the eighth annual meeting which was held in Masonic temple Wednesday afternoon and evening.

Miss Myrtle Winkle, worthy matron of Salem chapter, gave the welcome for the local chapter.

Among visiting officers here for the occasion were: Mrs. Elma Hurlinger, of Springfield, worthy grand matron; Past Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Maude Gilmore, of Niles; Mrs. Jessie Baechel, of Canton, deputy grand matron; Mrs. Williams, of Akron, grand conductress; Mrs. Cover, deputy of District 2; three grand representatives, Mrs. Mason, Mrs. Helen Schory, Minerva; Mrs. Maude Flower, East Liverpool.

Mrs. Vernon, of Alliance, was elected president of the district, succeeding Mrs. Gertrude Stewart, of Salem. Mrs. John Erwin, of East Palestine, is vice president. Mrs. Madeline Stratton, of Alliance, and Mrs. Ernestine Bennett, of Lisbon are secretary and treasurer, respectively. The convention next spring will be in Alliance.

Mrs. Stratton, of Alliance, served as chaplain for the afternoon session, while Mrs. Agnes Smith, of Lisbon, was marshal.

Every worthy matron in the district, and one worthy patron, had part in the Memorial service, which was in charge of Mrs. Alice Stewart, of East Liverpool. There were 35 deaths in the district in the (Continued on Page 3)

KUSHING IS HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Man Who Injured Elliott Is Under $10,000 Bond For Jury Probe

LISBON, April 10.—Harry W. Kushing, of the Pittsburgh, Pa., office of the General Motors Acceptance Corp., has been held for the grand jury under $10,000 bond by Justice of the Peace M. K. Zimmerman on an affidavit charging him with assault with intent to kill.

The affidavit was filed by Sheriff W. J. Barlow after Kushing crushed Deputy Sheriff James F. Elliott against a tree on the Lincoln Highway with his machine last Saturday afternoon.

A surety bond was approved by the court, and Kushing was released from the county jail, where he had been held since last Monday. Kushing entered a plea of not guilty, and waived a hearing. Elliott is confined in the Central Clinic hospital at Salem suffering from severe internal injuries.

Friends of Kushing, at the county jail when he was released, accompanied him to Pittsburgh.

Indian Village Will Feature Boy Scouts Camp Next June

Boys of County to Sleep In Teepee Tents At Eagleton Glen

Boy Scouts of Columbiana county will go into camp at Eagleton's Glen June 30 next, it was announced today by C. E. Felton of Lisbon, county scout executive. The camp will continue for seven weeks, and approximately 75 boys will be quartered there each two weeks period.

A new feature of the camp this year will be an Indian village, where the Scouts will sleep in teepee tents.

Scouts who propose to enter the camp for any two week period are now permitted to register.

The evening of June 7 Boy Scouts from all parts of the county will go into camp for the night at the county fair grounds, and the following day there will be a Boy Scout field meet under the direction of Felton.

The 100th anniversary of Covered Wagon day will not be observed in Columbiana county this year by the Scouts, Felton said, although other Boy Scout units throughout the country will observe the event.

A date for the next court of honor has not been determined.

Those who will assist Felton in the management of the summer camp will be selected within the next few weeks.

DIPLOMATS SEE WAY NOW CLEAR FOR NAVY PACT

Japan, Great Britain In Accord With United States' Ideas

FRANCE AND ITALY NOT IN AGREEMENT

Delegates Now Ask Two Nations Their Idea On Reduction

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, April 10.—Complete agreement was reached between the United States, Great Britain and Japan at the naval conference today and the way is now clear for a three-power pact.

Prime Minister MacDonald, Secretary Stimson and Reijiro Wakatsuki met this morning and cleared the decks by setting the still outstanding but minor point concerning a definition for use in connection with training ships.

The last vestige of hope for a five-power agreement were said not to have been abandoned. But it should be known by tonight whether such a treaty is possible or whether the American, British and Japanese delegates shall go ahead with a three-power pact.

Shortly after the meeting of the big three delegates, Secretary Stimson rushed off to see Foreign Minister Briand of France and at the same time Hugh S. Gibson left to visit Foreign Minister Grandi of Italy.

It was understood the chiefs of the two Latin powers were to be informed that the United States, Great Britain and Japan were in complete accord and to be invited to make their own position known quickly.

It was stated in well informed quarters that today's tripartite agreement on training ships was along the following lines: each of the three powers have the right to retain for training purposes one capital ship which had been destined for scrapping. These ships are to be dismantled. This really was a concession to Japan and permits her to retain one battleship which otherwise she would have had to scrap. By the same token the United States will scrap only two instead of three and Great Britain four instead of five.

It is understood that Japan also will be allowed to retain as training ships three light cruisers which otherwise would have been scrapped.

SEARCH FUTILE, SUIT IS RESULT

Leetonia Man Asks $5,000 Damages; Home Searched For Stolen Goods

Because a search warrant was returned and marked "nothing found" by Marshal John J. Mullen of Leetonia, a $5,000 damage action has been filed in common pleas court by Metzger, McCarthy & McCorkhill of Salem in behalf of Antonio Ciminelini against Abner P. Hepner of Leetonia.

The affidavit charged that two cases of canned corn, one case of canned beans and cases of canned peas were taken from the store of the affiant. The home of the plaintiff was searched, and the goods were not located there.

Ciminelini in his petition sets out that his reputation has been damaged. The property of the plaintiff was searched Jan. 9 last.

WESTERN QUAKE DAMAGE SMALL

Two Hurt As Earth Rocks Over A Wide Area; Buildings Are Cracked Apart

SAN FRANCISCO, April 10.—The tremor which was felt at several points in central and eastern California and western Nevada did but slight damage, a check disclosed today.

Although but few persons in Sacramento were aware of the quake, a house collapsed when its foundations were weakened by the earth tremor. Mrs. Mary Wade, 22, and her two-year-old son were slightly cut by glass when the house settled. Five others in the house were uninjured.

The quake apparently centered around Truckee and Lake Tahoe. It cracked walls in Tahoe tavern and loosened planks.

GOVERNORS MAY ATTEND RALLY AT LIVERPOOL

5,000 War Veterans Will Gather for Tri-State Event on May 23

OFFICIALS INVITED TO VISIT OCCASION

Governor Cooper Plans to Be Present; Executives Plan Attendance

EAST LIVERPOOL, April 10.—More than 5,000 war veterans are expected to attend the tri-state American Legion rally which will be held here in honor of National Commander O. L. Bodenhamer of El Dorado, Ark., Friday, May 23.

Governors of three states, Myers Y. Cooper of Ohio, William G. Conley of West Virginia and John S. Fisher, chief executive of Pennsylvania, are scheduled to meet at the rally, having been extended invitations by the general committee of the Liverpool Legion and Chamber of Commerce.

Gov. Cooper has indicated that he will attend the rally while both Conley and Fisher are expected to accept. Thad Brown, former secretary of state, now chief counsel for the federal radio commission at Washington, Congressman Frank Murphy of Steubenville will be present while invitations have also been forwarded to John G. Cooper of Ohio, Congressman Howard Swick of Beaver Falls, Pa., and Carl Bachmann, of Wheeling, W. Va.

Dudley White, Norwalk, O., department Legion commander, and James A. East, Martinsburg, W. Va., West Virginia commander, have notified the committee that they will attend. An invitation has also been sent to Frank Pinola, Philadelphia, commander of the Pennsylvania department.

Banquet at Elks' Temple
The celebration will include a banquet at the Elks' temple at 6:30 p. m., which more than 350 guests are expected to attend. A military parade, in which more than a dozen uniformed bands and drum and bugle corps and 3,500 marchers will take part, is scheduled for 8:30 o'clock. The reviewing stand will be erected in front of the Croxall building at Fourth and Broadway.

Commander Bodenhamer will speak from the reviewing stand at the conclusion of the parade. The address will precede band, drum and bugle corps contests, drill squad and manual of arms, in which cash prizes will be awarded. Prizes will also be given the post delegation coming the longest distance and also to the post having the largest number of men in uniform in parade.

FIRE THREATENS CLEVELAND AREA

Business District Blaze Delays Traffic; Loss Places At Over $10,000

CLEVELAND, April 10.—Down-town Cleveland was thrown into a panic here today when fire, which broke out in the K-B Credit Clothing company store, threatened the business section.

All downtown fire companies responded to the alarm. Euclid avenue, the main thoroughfare, was completely blocked and hundreds of persons were delayed in reaching their work.

The fire was believed to have originated from a gas clothes pressing machine, which was not turned off when employees quit work last night.

Damage by fire was estimated at approximately $10,000.

Prowler Arrested In East Rochester

LISBON, April 10.—Charged with "peeping Tom" activities in East Rochester Wednesday night, Leon Vigo, Clarksburg, W. Va., is being held in county jail here today.

The man is alleged to have been prowling around residences in the village, scaring women and children by his actions. He was arrested by Deputies David Eells and George Harroff.

Vigo, a Spaniard, through an interpreter, told Sheriff W. J. Barlow that he was a resident of Clarksburg where he has a son and daughter. Clarksburg officials were notified.

The man, according to Barlow, is demented.

YEAR'S RECORDS FALL WITH BULL RAMPAGE CAUSE

First Half Hour Sets New Mark for 1930; Prices Are Upward

NEW PEAK PRICES HIT BY ISSUES

Reason for Condition of Mart Was Not Given In Advance

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 10.—The stock market was on a wild bull rampage today as blocks of 5,000 to 35,000 shares changed hands at rising prices.

Initial gains in the leaders ranged from a few cents to $3 a share.

Total sales in the first half hour crossed the $1,000,000 share mark for the first time this year.

So great was the volume of trading that the ticker was running 22 minutes behind the market at the end of the first hour.

New peak prices for the year also were registered by Standard Oil of Kansas, Public Service of N. J., Manhattan Electrical Supply, Best & Co. Sparks-Wilmington, Shubert Theatres, Oliver Farm Equipment, Worthington Pump, Corn Products, Briggs Mfg., Borden Co., Universal Pipe, Chicago and Alton, preferred, Krueger & Toll, and Tunkin Boiler Bearing.

There was nothing in the overnight news to explain the sudden revival in bullish enthusiasm.

It has been apparent for several days, however, that bear traders were having difficulty in hammering stocks down with the result that several issues have developed an over-extended short interest, which was quick to cover on the appearance of large buying orders.

MOVIE PRICE UP; STUDENTS RIOT

Several Injured as Mob Gathers at Theater In College Town

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., April 10.—University of Virginia students today were in a state of high excitement following a riot last night in protest to increase admission prices at two local theaters.

Two students were in the university hospital, dozens of others were nursing head wounds inflicted by police night sticks and at least one policeman was suffering from manhandling. Nearly a thousand students participated in the disturbances. No arrests were made.

Although the actual riot was dispersed with a plea for arbitration by President Edwin A. Alderman, of the university, hundreds of students continued to mill about the town long after midnight.

Led by a drum corps, nearly a thousand students mobilized on the university campus early last night, and marched down Main street to the theater.

Leaders of the demonstration gained a conference with the management, and while they were inside, their followers showered the front of one of the theaters with eggs, broke electric light bulbs, and blocked traffic.

Liquor Trial Here Continued by Mayor

The trial of Joseph Abraham, Hill st., was continued until 10 a. m. Monday by Mayor John M. Davidson today.

Abraham is charged with unlawful possession of intoxicating liquors and was scheduled to appear for trial at 10 a. m. today. He denies the charge.

Some of the mystery surrounding the 10,000-ton German cruiser, the Ersatz Preussen, which has been referred to as a "pocket battleship," has been dispelled, and it is now known that she has weaknesses as well as advantages.

Built to conform to the 10,000-ton limitation placed on German warships by the terms of the Versailles agreement, the Ersatz Preussen was designed to get within the limitation by saving space by the utilization of Diesel engines in place of steam and her weight has been substantially lightened by substituting plate welding for riveting. In size she is a cruiser, but she gets the battleship classification by reason of her main armament of six eleven-inch guns, guns three inches larger in diameter than any used on the new cruisers built under the Washington conference agreement by the powers party to it. She also has two triple torpedo tubes. Her armor, however, will offer far less protection than originally thought by the experts of other powers, not exceeding in thickness five inches. Thus she must rely upon her designed speed of 27 knots to escape the attacks of battleships, none afloat having that speed, but the speed advantage which she will have over battleships is lost as against the treaty cruisers of lighter armament, built or building under the Washington agreement, which have speed in excess of that she is designed to possess.

However, naval authorities outside Germany hold that her greatest weakness will probably arise from the use of the Diesel engine, upon which her designers rely to give her 27 knots of speed and a cruising radius of 10,000 miles at a speed of 20 knots. Experience has shown that this style of engine does not stand up well under the vibration resulting from great speed, and that the German builders realize this is made evident by the fact that they plan to try out Diesel engines in the 6,000-ton cruiser, Leipzig, launched last October, before installing them in the Ersatz Preussen.

All in all, the "pocket battleship" of Germany may not cause the revolution in warship construction which was predicted at the time the news that German builders were constructing a mystery ship of heavy armament leaked out.

FREE OF DUTY

While the tonnage of anthracite being shipped into this country, free of duty, from Soviet Russia is comparatively small, there is merit in the contention of Henry D. Baker, former American commercial attaché to Russia, that congress should take action looking to the tightening of the provisions of the customs law against its dumping over here at prices to dealers about a dollar a ton below those they are asked to pay for Pennsylvania anthracite.

victions of our customs laws. Dumping, as we construe it over here, is the selling abroad of the products of a country, at prices lower than those at which they are sold in that country. The charge of dumping can not be legally sustained against Russia in this matter for the reason that it does not sell anthracite at home. What little is used there, Mr. Baker states, is used by the Soviet itself.

"There is no free market for coal in Russia or for any other article," Mr. Baker explains. "If any coal should be sold, such as to a government-owned hotel where foreigners stop, it is sold really only from the Soviet by the Soviet and to the Soviet. In fact, most of the hard coal is apparently now not used at all in Russia, but is reserved for dumping in other countries."

He adds that this same problem has a vital bearing on other American industries, such as lumber and matches, which the bolshevik already have begun to dump, and he suggests that a new definition of dumping should be written into the tariff law, which would provide for the exclusion of articles sold unreasonably below a basis of fair wages for labor and a fair profit for capital, in both cases in accord with American standards.

What Others Say

THAT LOST FEELING

The brief panic to which Admiral Byrd's husky comrades confessed when they encountered streets and traffic again, after their life in Antarctica, will be familiar to every one who has ever quitted a hospital or who, after many years away, has come to a town. It is the disconcerting, impersonal, dwarfing magnitude of civilization and its urban roar—more terrifying to some than the howling wilderness. It is a snubbing, general pre-occupation which makes the newcomer more lonely than did solitude.

To combat a bumping crowd after long seclusion is always shocking. One can not believe that crowds and traffic used to be like that! There seems to be no place in all this for a returned exile, no mercy for a convalescent. Everything has become overbearing and daunting—the building, the cars, the bewildering signs—and the presence of so many indifferent strangers gives a peculiar effect of hostility. The arrival from the hospital or the bad lands is smitten by a seared homesickness for the desolation he has left, which, by comparison with these bustling moters, seems kindly and considerate of that frail thing man. The doughtiest being, if he has ever been shut in for a long time, remembers how enormous, powerful and heedless the city loomed when, emerging, he first tried to cross a street.

And so sometimes explorers return to the wastes, patients to sanatoriums, trappers to their cabins and tired men to prison, not because they must, but because, in Antarctica, or a little room, one is protected from gigantic monsters like towns.—New York Herald Tribune.

HEALTH

By Dr. Royal S. Copeland

CAUSE OF IMPETIGO

There are all sort of inflammations which attack the skin. The covering of the body is subject to many diseases. We hardly wonder at this when we realize how constantly exposed it is to dust, dirt and germs of all sorts.

"Impetigo" is the name given to certain forms of blisters which appear on what would otherwise be a healthy skin. These blisters dry out into crusts and then fall off, leaving a superficial raw surface. The spot soon heals without leaving a scar.

This disease is probably due to an infection from a pus producing germ. It usually lasts four or five days, but sometimes, when the power of resistance is low, it may hang on for weeks.

It appears most often around the mouth, the nose or the ear. It may attack any part of the body. Children sometimes have it on the face, and it may be quite serious. The child is apt to scratch the place and increase the infection. Sometimes the blotch looks like dried honey on the face of the child. Its appearance gives it the name of "milk crusts." A child should be kept from scratching or picking the infected area.

Most forms of the disease are infectious. A discharge from the blister may infect other healthy skin. Should there be a broken surface of the skin, such as a burn or eczema, the germ may enter and cause severe complications.

When impetigo forms into a crust, that should be removed. This may be done by first moistening it with a dressing of gauze or soaking it for a short time. When the crust softens it may be carefully wiped off. If the crust is allowed to remain the warmth of the face makes the sore an ideal breeding place for the germs, resulting in further infection.

One cannot be too careful about the complete cleanliness of the skin at all times. Use plenty of mild soap and warm water. Do not put the hands on the face unless the hands are scrupulously clean. Skin eruptions are a sign of neglect.

Keep the body clean inside and out. Build up the health by proper food, exercise in the fresh air, thus building up resistance against all disease germs.

Fortunately impetigo is a very superficial thing and does not go deeply into the tissues. But it is a disfiguring and painful trouble. One should do everything possible to get rid of it, and get the skin into a healthy condition. Nature does all possible to help us in mending diseased parts, and we should use intelligence in aiding this process.

Answers to Health Queries

I. L. C. Q.—Will cocoa butter fatten the legs?
A.—No. Try to gain weight in general.

S. M. E. Q.—What are the symptoms of diabetes?
2.—What will make my hair grow?

The Stars Say

For Friday, April 11

A day of fairly routine events is presaged from the lunar transits, which point to some trifling commotions or anxieties in personal affairs. New undertakings have a fair promise of success, especially if managed with diplomacy or shrewdness. This may be accomplished by means of correspondence or through secret agreements or understandings with companies, corporations or secret organizations. The mind may tend toward subtle intriguing or to conspiracy in furthering the plans.

Those whose birthday it is may expect success in their new ventures during the year by secret methods or understandings will close corporations, mergers or secret orders. They may incline to conspiracy, diplomacy or intrigue rather than above board methods. Personal matters may be attended by anxiety or friction.

A child born on this day may have a mind given to subtlety, intrigue or mysticism. It may have talent in writing along such lines. It may have success in diplomatic posts or in strategic positions.

Rev. W. H. Taylor writes, "After a 7 weeks' revival campaign I was entirely run-down and losing flesh rapidly. I decided to give Ironized Yeast a 3 weeks' trial. After 2 weeks I found my strength returning and the tired feeling gone. In 3 weeks I had gained 7 lbs. and was myself again."

Imagine, just three weeks to change from a "skinny," tired person to a strong, well-filled-out man or woman. Ugly hollows vanish. Broomstick limbs become round and chubby. Tired feeling disappears. Blemished skin clears.

Highlights Of Ohio History

By J. H. GALBRAITH

W. H. McGuffey, was a resident of Ohio when he prepared his reading textbooks and through most of the active years of his life—and that might account for the fact that his readers obtained more value here than anywhere else, and that those who used them in their school days now form organizations and meet at intervals to praise the books and their author. Some have said that it is the glamor of things remembered with the freshness of youth that causes them to do this, but thumbing through an old copy of the fifth reader which his loving owner brought to him recently, the writer was certainly made to feel that the "sentiment" is in fact well grounded good opinion.

The books were not merely reader text books but introductions to the best literature. Run over these titles and authors who were familiar with the readers, and have your memories refreshed with the enjoyment that your introduction to them gave you. There's Drake's apostrophe to the American flag, Halleck's March, Bryant's Song of the Greek Bard, Byron, Bulwer's Battle of Marathon, Lockhart's—That was the one we liked to read—Lament for the Dead, O'Connell, Anthony's cration and a number of other selections from Shakespeare, "What Constitutes a State," Sir William Jones, the 10th Psalm—Bless the Lord, O My Soul! Cowper's "Mother's Picture," Alexander's Feast, Dryden, Southey's Battle of Blenheim, Lamb's Essay on Campion, Goldsmith's Essay on Madam Blaise, Cowper's Nose and Eyes, Lord Chatham's address on the American war, Parting of Marston and Douglas, Edmund Burke's address at the trial of Warren Hastings, Bryant's Sunnier Evening, Longfellow's Psalm, an extract from Dickens, The Rains of Herculaneum, Fanny's Nellie Gray, Hood, South Carolina, Hayne and Webster's reply, "Massachusetts and South Carolina," The Prisoner for Debt—Whittier, and the selection entitled "Heart Broken" from Washington Irving beginning "Everyone must remember the tragic story of Young Emmet."

This edition does not contain them, but readers of the series with which the writer was familiar carried with each selection from a noted author a biographical sketch which made the books still more valuable on the instruction side of literature.

Thomas P. Canter of Columbus has a bell, such as are used on farms to call the farm hands to dinner, that has an interesting history and is, in fact, a relic. It was used in Franklin county to call men from the fields and to give alarm when its notes often fell upon the ears of Indians, still roaming the woods of the country.

The history of the bell, as Mr. Canter has it, is this. It was cast by the Buckeye Foundry of Cincinnati in the year 1801. Soon thereafter it was sold to Joseph D. Clary, a farmer who located in what is now Norwich township near the present site of Hilliards. It served the Clary family as a farm bell until 1825, when it was sold to Joseph Parker, another farmer of Norwich township and remained in his hands and those of his descendants until lately, when an opportunity came to Mr. Canter to purchase it and he did so, solely for his historical value. He is a laborer and has no actual use for the bell.

When it came into Mr. Canter's hands the bell was in excellent condition and still is, but the tree as the metal fork on which the axis of the bell is suspended is called, was gone—worn out with use, probably, or broken—but he intends to have a new one cast for it at a local foundry and have the bell rung on noted occasions. He believes it is one of the oldest relics in central Ohio.

The bell has a mouth diameter of 14 1/2 inches and its height is 16 inches. It is made of brass.

and has a much softer and more pleasing tone than farm bells of later manufacture in whose composition very little copper was used. This bell is therefore almost 130 years old and its owner proposes that its clear tones shall ring out as much over Franklin county as possible.

Beauty, Character Intrinsic Value

A masterpiece is only a bit of canvas and paint, or a few sticks of wood and perhaps some bricks and stones, or a few plants and trees, until the hand of the master craftsman shapes them into a creation of marvelous beauty.

How does a home acquire character, distinction and beauty?

It is a joy to live in a home that you have made yourself.

The average home owner will not call upon a LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT to aid him in improving his property, because he has heard of the large fees paid for this service. In the past Landscape Architects devoted a large percentage of their time to work on large estates and extensive real estate propositions.

Few, if any ordinary building lots could afford these high prices and the small owner did his own landscaping with indifferent results.

Brilliant Police Work In Pittsburgh Clears Up Mystery Death

HEAD WAS TAKEN FROM DEAD BODY

Claim Man "Double-Cross" Beer Gang by Selling Truck and Load

PITTSBURGH, April 10.—Climaxing one of the most brilliant bits of crime investigation in this city's history, James Moleno, 30, alleged beer-runner and racketeer, broke under relentless grilling in police headquarters early today and revealed the full story of Pittsburgh's headless murder, detectives said today.

The decapitated victim, his torso mutilated and slashed body, was found on April 1 in a wooded section of the city and later was identified as William Gregory, 23, who "double-crossed" his beer-running bosses by selling a truck-load of beer—and the truck—in Akron, Ohio.

Gregory then calmly returned to Pittsburgh and reported he had been hijacked. His death followed, Moleno's alleged confession, breaking the unwritten law of gangland, charged Philip Fazio, of Clairton, alleged head of the bootleg syndicate which employed Gregory, with the murder.

Suspect Accuses Man Moleno charges Fazio offered him $200 to help the boss racketeer kill Gregory. The offer, Moleno told detectives, was made in a Bloomfield brewery, allegedly owned by Fazio, on March 31.

Gregory's body was found the next day. A raid on the brewery disclosed that time had been sprinkled over the floor in what was believed to be an effort to obliterate stains, closely resembling bloodstains, on the brewery floor.

Moleno was said by detectives to have identified a blood-stained wrench, found near the brewery, as the one used by Fazio in illustrating how the "double-crosser" would meet death. Fazio also pantomimed with a piece of noosed rope, how Gregory would be garrotted, Moleno told police.

The rope and garrot were being held by police pending an inquest this afternoon. A warrant charging murder has been sworn out against Fazio.

Woman Charged With Second Degree Murder In Holmes County Court Testifies In Own Behalf

MILLERSBURG, O., April 10.—Completion of the defense of Mrs. Maud Raynes Sevasto in her trial on charges of second degree murder in connection with the slaying of her husband, John, two months ago, was scheduled in Holmes county common pleas court today.

Mrs. Sevasto was on the witness stand most of yesterday and told the jury of 19 men and three women her version of the shooting of her husband, who the state contended, was slain after a party at the Sevasto home at Killbuck, near here.

The state rested its case yesterday morning and is expected to present a number of rebuttal witnesses after the defense ends its presentation.

The Sevasto trial is the first murder hearing in Holmes county in half a century and the courtroom has been crowded by spectators every day.

The association presented gifts to Mrs. Hullinger, Mrs. Barchel and Mrs. Stewart.

In the evening Mrs. Hullinger presided at the annual inspection of the chapter and highly commended the officers for their work. Following the inspection Salem chapter officers and trio, presented Miss Windle, worthy matron, a cameo pin. Mrs. Beulah Anthony, of Alliance, past deputy grand matron, gave Miss Windle a bouquet of roses.

Mrs. Forest Coy and Mrs. Minna Schewe, sang a duet at the closing.

Six hundred and fifty people attended the inspection. The inspection was preceded by a dinner served by the executive committee of Salem chapter. The dining room presented a beautiful appearance with a decorative motif of orchid and yellow. The "T" shaped table at which the officers were seated was enhanced with baskets of calendulas and lilies, while a large basket in the center was filled with yellow roses and calendulas. On the other tables calendulas were used with fine ferns. The pretty little favors were flower pots, filled with flowers, made of the prevailing colors.

There are 19 chapters in the district and all were represented at the meeting.

Teacher Fined

GEORGETOWN, O., April 10.—Lloyd Brown, 29, rural school teacher who was charged with assault and battery by a father who had tried to whip him after his daughter Cleo Gast, 15, had been spanked, was fined $50 and sentenced to one day in jail by Judge J. E. Parker yesterday. Brown said the girl closed a book with a slam to earn the chastisement.

Seven Lutheran Groups Will Unite In Formation Of New Church Organization In U. S.

Pastor Here Traces History of Organization In America; Lutheran Churches Established Throughout World As Early as 1532

Announcement was recently made to the effect that seven Lutheran Synods of the United States were about to form a federation, a movement which is received with approval and involves seven synods in entrance into the American Lutheran Conference.

These groups will be included: The Norwegian Lutheran Church of America, Evangelical Lutheran Augustana Synod, Lutheran Free Church, United Danish Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, Lutheran Synod of Buffalo, Evangelical Synod of Iowa and other states and the Evangelical Lutheran Joint Synod of Ohio.

The conference will have a total membership of 1,358,619. The last three Synods mentioned will form an organic union next August which will be named American Lutheran Church.

The Emanuel Lutheran church of Salem is a component part of this body.

The impression has for a long time been prevalent that the Lutheran church is a foreign church in America. Rev. B. E. Rutsky, Salem pastor stated today. This idea can hardly be maintained by anybody acquainted with the history of America.

"The first Lutheran church on the American continent was established in Venezuela, in South America, as early as 1532. This colony, however, went the way of the Spanish conquest. Likewise, in North America, Lutherans from the French colonies, under Jean Ribault, in the Carolinas, in 1562 and 1564, met the Spanish Conquest, under Menendez, who boasted that he had come to the Americas to hang and behead all Lutherans.

"The Danes were in North America on the shores of the Hudson bay, from September, 1619, until February, 1625. Rev. Rutsky continued, and here Rasmus Jensen, the first Lutheran pastor of North America, held services and was buried at his death on Feb. 20, 1620. Among the early settlers on Manhattan Island were Lutherans from the Scandinavian countries, Germany and Holland. This very man who is credited by some historians with having built in 1613, the first habitation for white men on Manhattan Island, Hendrick Christensen, from the German town of Clevel, scientific research reveals, was a Lutheran.

"The first white child born north of Virginia was John Vinje, a Norwegian Lutheran, on Manhattan Island in 1614. The earliest Lutherans to settle permanently in North America came from Holland to Manhattan Island in 1623. Jonas Bronck, whose name is perpetuated in Bronx borough, is credited by historians as having been a Lutheran. He arrived in 1639. Since that time, Lutherans have come over in great numbers, not only from Germany, but from Scandinavian countries as well, so that today there is a membership in the Lutheran church of the United States of 3,906,093.

One of the chief hopes of forming the new federation is to co-operate in missionary and educational work the pastor added, thus eliminating some of the duplications which are at present necessary.

There can be no valid reasons for refusing cooperation among groups that are agreed in doctrine and practice. We are living in an age that calls for far vision and united action. Instead of rivalry and competition, there is to be cooperation and mutual strengthening. "The last score of years has witnessed wonderful progress in this direction," Rev. Rutsky concluded.

The Pattons have been married 30 years and have six children. Though they have been separated for some time, they are not divorced.

MINISTER HELD FOLLOWING RAID

Claim Liquor Was Found In Grip Of Western Pastor; Charge Will Be Filed In Case

ST. PAUL, MINN., April 10.—A man who identified himself as the Rev. William F. Diehl, pastor of the St. Lucas Evangelical church at Fairbault, Minn., was arrested with four other men last night when federal agents raided a room in the Junior hotel. A quantity of liquor was found, the agents said.

Maurice Silverman, assistant northwest prohibition administrator, alleged to charge Diehl today with illegal possession of liquor. Charges of possession and sale were to be made against the others—W. Yesko and Albert Kalsen, proprietors of the hotel, George Kerwin, and W. L. Ballard.

Diehl's comment was that there had been "a terrible mistake."

Silverman said a flask of liquor was found in the clergyman's grip.

Why Few Are Fat

Excess fat has been disappearing fast in late years. So fast that excess fat is the exception now. You see that in every circle.

That change is largely due to the discovery that excess fat is largely the result of a gland weakness. A gland whose secretion helps turn food to fuel. So modern physicians, in treating obesity, seek to combat this cause.

Their method is embodied in Marmola prescription tablets. People have used them for 22 years—millions of boxes of them. Now almost everyone has slender friends to show them the results.

Go do what they did—try Marmola. All druggists supply it at $1 a box, and a book in each box tells you how and why it acts.

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 10.—Former President Calvin Coolidge, in a copyrighted article in the May issue of a magazine, writes that he has no intention of returning to public life.

The former president gives his views on prohibition, the tariff, playing the market, the suggestion that he run for senator, the talk of another term and "minding one's own business."

"When I left Washington I left public office," Mr. Coolidge says. "It is an incomprehensible relief and I have no intention of returning to it."

"If I were in the senate," he adds, "it would not be agreeable to many of my colleagues, and with all my desires to be helpful it would probably offend them as an embarrassment to the administration. To have a former president in Washington exercising political power would result in all kinds of uncomfortable complications. Only the necessity of serving in some national crisis, so great as to subordinate all other considerations, would warrant it."

"Nor," he says further, "do I have any sympathy with those who are discussing again making me president. The service that I could give to the people in that office I feel is done."

Mr. Coolidge discusses prohibition, as some length and in connection with the editor of the magazine has singled out for prominent presentation this sentence:

"Considering that people have differed most radically on the best method of regulating the sale of liquor for generations, it is not likely to be settled for a long time to come."

"When I left Washington I left public office," Mr. Coolidge says. "It is an incomprehensible relief and I have no intention of returning to it."

"If I were in the senate," he adds, "it would not be agreeable to many of my colleagues, and with all my desires to be helpful it would probably offend them as an embarrassment to the administration. To have a former president in Washington exercising political power would result in all kinds of uncomfortable complications. Only the necessity of serving in some national crisis, so great as to subordinate all other considerations, would warrant it."

"Nor," he says further, "do I have any sympathy with those who are discussing again making me president. The service that I could give to the people in that office I feel is done."

Mr. Coolidge discusses prohibition, as some length and in connection with the editor of the magazine has singled out for prominent presentation this sentence:

"Considering that people have differed most radically on the best method of regulating the sale of liquor for generations, it is not likely to be settled for a long time to come."

SHERWIN-WILLIAMS
Paint Headquarters
FRIDAY & SATURDAY
SUGGESTIONS

What is a bargain? Price alone cannot make one. It's what you get for the price that makes the bargain. Sherwin-Williams Paints, for example, may cost slightly more per quart. But they cost less on your walls, because each quart thoroughly covers far more surface. Fewer quarts are needed. We recommend Sherwin-Williams Paints because they are the world's greatest paint bargains.

Save on interior decorating — use S-W Semi-Lustre

A washable interior paint with the hard-drying qualities of enamel! S-W Semi-Lustre has no equal as a finish for plaster walls or wall-board. It is particularly suited to bathroom and kitchen as well as woodwork. Dries with a long-wearing satin half-enamel gloss that leaves dirt no place to lodge. Only soap and water are needed to restore its original luster. Available in a wide variety of happy colors that retain their beauty to the last.

S-W House Paint
The world's best house paint. Covers more surface per gallon. Costs less on your house. Lasts twice as long. Regular colors. Per gallon. $3.65

S-W Flat-Tone
A washable flat wall paint for interior decorations. Produces beautiful velvet finish on plaster or wall-board. Per quart. 80c

S-W Enameloid
The world's finest rapid-drying decorative enamel. Ideal for woodwork, furniture, toys, etc. Wide range of charming colors. Per quart. $1.80

S-W Semi-Lustre
The ideal paint for plaster walls, wall-board and woodwork. Excellent for bathrooms and kitchens. Has the hard-drying and washable qualities of enamel—yet brushes out and works with the ease of an oil paint. Dries with a half-enamel gloss. Per quart. 90c

S-W Porch & Deck Paint
Especially prepared to withstand outside exposure and hard wear on porch floors, steps, decks of boats, etc. Per quart. $1.00

Rogers Brushing Lacquer
The popular modern fast-drying home lacquer. Easily applied. Exquisite colors. Dries while you wait. Per 1/2 pint. 65c

Clear up your skin, dear, and you will be popular, too!

If you desire a clear skin, you must keep your blood in good condition.

A lovely, clear skin is within your reach

WITH the last blemish gone, confidence returns. More friends, more invitations—more good times. With the joy and pride of possessing a clear skin, self-respect increases.

A lovely, clear skin is within the reach of all. To you who have lost it, hope is offered, that you, too, may have a beautiful skin, rose-petal in texture, pretty as a picture and without a single pimple.

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of skin eruptions as being an indication that the body's power of resistance is low.

The natural way to remedy this condition is to restore the red-blood-cells to normal.

This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful skin annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

S.S.S. helps Nature restore the blood to its normal state. Healthy blood nourishes the body and works against infection and disease.

Without plenty of rich, red blood there would be no strong, sturdy, powerful men, or healthy, beautiful women.

If you are troubled with so-called skin disorders, take a few bottles of S.S.S.

may be found in every good drug store in America. Thousands of users have testified to its benefits in unsolicited letters of gratitude. Seek energy, vitality and a clear skin through the remedy which is made from strictly fresh vegetable drugs and has stood the test for over 100 years. Sold in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

Borah Will "Stump" On Debenture Plan

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Senator Borah, of Idaho, is ready to go on the "stump" in behalf of the export debenture principle of farm relief which the senate coalition has placed in the tariff bill over the protest of President Hoover.

The Idahoan whose oratorical power was unleashed in the 1928 campaign in behalf of Mr. Hoover will speak tomorrow night at Martinsburg, W. Va., at a meeting of the fruit exchange in one of the first public addresses he has delivered since the presidential campaign.

The export debenture plan of farm relief over which he and the president broke in early days of Hoover administration will be the theme of his address. This provision is now a part of the tariff bill which is in the hands of conferees of the senate and house.

THROAT IF SORE NEEDS RELIEF

Use Muterole—usually effective in one application—better when applied once every hour for 5 hours

SAVE WITH ICE

Meet April Days with Plenty of ICE

TEMPERATURES vary a lot these spring days — warm one hour, chilly the next. It is then that foods must be especially well protected to keep them fresh and savory, safe for the family table. And foods kept in a well ice refrigerator will stay fresh and pure. The temperature is at a constant low cold, and the air neither too moist nor too dry, but just right to keep foods in prime condition.

Where there are children in the family, it is particularly important that there be a plentiful supply of ice in the ice box all the time. Their vigorous young bodies must depend on food that is pure and healthful.

Social Affairs

POST-NUPITAL SHOWER

Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips, who were married last week, were honored with a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips, Depot rd.

There were more than 50 in the company, relatives and a few friends. Some of the guests were from Salem and near Leetonia.

The hours were enjoyed informally with music. Refreshments were served. The young people received many gifts for their new home.

Mrs. Phillips before her marriage was Miss Pearl Taylor.

HOMEMAKERS CLUB

The Vernal Grove Homemakers club had an enjoyable all-day meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. S. E. Christopher, Depot rd., with Mrs. John Barichy hostess.

A covered dish dinner was a feature and Mrs. Barichy gave each guest an Easter egg filled with candy.

The time was devoted to visiting and sewing carpet rags. Guests of the club were: Mrs. O. Butler, Mrs. Mary Murphy, Mrs. Scott Warner, Mrs. Charles Burger, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Hannah Baker.

A meeting on May 14, will be with Mrs. Frank Pula, near the Winona rd.

PERPETUAL SHIRMS

Mrs. William Carlisle and Mrs. Ross Culbertson received the prizes offered in five hundred at a meeting of the Perpetual Chums Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Jack Hicks, North Rose ave. Three tables were in play. A lunch was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Paul Sommers was a guest at the meeting. Mrs. Thomas Ehrhart will entertain next Wednesday at her home, Ellsworth ave.

OCLETTE CLUB

Mrs. Paul Dean was a guest when members of the Oclette club met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Charles Mangus, Perry st. Two tables of five hundred were in play and the prizes went to Mrs. Joseph Tolp and Mrs. Dean. After the games refreshments were served by the hostess.

In two weeks the members will meet at the home of Mrs. Tolp, Lisbon rd.

Charles Lewton, of Lisbon, and Russell Stratton, of Salem, were in Cleveland Wednesday evening to attend a Boy Scout exposition.

J. M. Mercer, who is living with his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Herbert, Ohio ave., is reported critically ill.

STYLE EDICTS

PARIS, April 10.—The hand that rocks the cradle and all others as well must be lengthily gloved this spring, and this means even more so in the evening.

Evening gloves, like the skirts, are decidedly long, averaging 12 to 14 buttons and many of them going as far as 20 and 24. Most of them are plain and come in both suede and lace kid. White, off white and black are the principal colors, but pastel shades appear in all the collections with soft pink especially prominent. Nile green and sky-blue are favorites. Silk embroidery and discreet beading are noticed on a few models.

Patou is showing the 24-button length, wide above the elbow and in colored suede. Frequently dark shades come with light colored gowns as black suede with opaline-pink, dark green with a light, yellowish-green frock and deep rose with a printed rose and beige.

Maggy Rouff shows the long 16-button glove in pastel shades, gathered in at the forearm about a hand increased horizontally.

Another designer has embroidered the tops of evening gloves with beads or sequins in colors to match the novelty jewelry which is designed on the dress. Callot uses incrustations of lace or tulle and Martial et Armand shirred incrustations of taffeta, georgette or lace on 18-button gloves of black suede.

Gauntlet gloves are the specialty of Suzanne Talbot, very often coming in the same fabric as the gown itself. These matching gloves are one of the most interesting notes in current fashion as applied to formal evening dress.

PARIS, April 10.—The Saturday to Monday outfit will not mean bigger bags and more luggage in spite of the increased length and bulk of new spring frocks and costumes. For fashion has returned to a certain degree of formality, emphasizing distinction between country and town garments.

There are also many excellent types of ready-to-wear tweeds and jerseys that can employ the thinner make for the frock beneath and heavier than the coat. The "ensemble" idea holds good in all things this season and first and foremost for the Saturday to Monday outfit.

The week-end three-piece in tweed can be quickly made into a four-piece by slipping over it a neat crepe de chine frock.

Most necessary of all, of course, is the traveling ensemble and a most trig and charming one comes in dove gray faced with smart elbow length cape trimmed in grey Persian lamb. The hat is a combination of the airman's helmet and a beret with long scarf which twines around the neck.

A soft crepe de chine ensemble will be very smart or the afternoon tea or club round, simple but well-cut frock and hip length jacket with capelet.

For evening there must of course be the gala gown, long in skirt and low in neck. For the Sunday luncheon a simple silk or crepe, probably black which is always safest, with a well defined but graceful horizontal waistline and a full but not-too-long skirt.

With such a wardrobe any woman can look smart from Saturday to Monday.

HOSTESS TO CLUB

Club associates of Mrs. Paul Callahan spent Wednesday afternoon at her home, Cleveland st., and devoted the hours to playing cards. Mrs. Ed Sidinger and Mrs. Robert Litty won the prizes offered. Lunch was served.

In two weeks the members will meet with Mrs. Sidinger at her home, West Fourth st.

PAST NOBLE GRANDS

The Past Noble Grand association of Home Lodge No. 119, Daughters of Rebekah, met Wednesday evening at the hall, South Broadway.

Lunch was served at the social period. Plans were made to have a covered dish supper in connection with a meeting on Wednesday evening, May 14.

GOLD STAR AUXILIARY

Gold Star auxiliary will hold a meeting at 7:30 p. m. Monday at the hall. A covered dish supper will be a feature.

Miss Naomi Votaw, who resigned her position at the Spring-Holworth store here, has accepted a position as corsetier at the Warner store in Warren.

(Continued From Page 1.) his mouth. He then breathed gently upon a flame and it was instantly extinguished.

What would be the value of a flourine agency down below.

MUSCOLINI FORBIDS intoxication which means more in Italy than 40 constitutional amendments would mean here. But Mussolini allows his legislature to decide that the mild and rare drunkenness caused by drinking natural Italian wines does not count. Only hard liquor drunkenness is to be punished.

To prohibition that seems absurd, but it is not quite absurd, scientifically. Natural wines, no matter how much you drink, do not produce delirium tremens.

Champagne of course is not included among natural wines and is about as bad as whisky with the additional disadvantage of completing the process of fermentation in your stomach.

THE ITALIAN deputy, Cruciani, says, truly, that wine drinking populations are not drunken. Italy has lost her wine markets in Russia and America. Italian wines are cheap, abundant, and yet their use has fallen. In 1913 each Italian averaged 32 gallons of wine a year. Last year the average was 20 gallons. Mussolini has kept his countrymen so busy they have had little time to drink. Once, in Italy, wine was so plentiful and cheap that it was mixed with the feed of horses to strengthen them. Italian men drank no more than ordinarily.

STUDYING EVENTS in India, you realize that British statesmen are able and Britons understand management of foreign possessions. Mahatma Gandhi continues his personal rebellion against Britain, waiting the poor lion's tail remorselessly, preaching sedition and disobedience, breaking salt laws, etc.

THE LION PRETENDS not to know about it and carefully refrains from jailing Gandhi, which would make him a martyr. But Britain jails the hamatma's followers, in cluding his son, and sends 4,000 native troops to disperse, and shoot if necessary, thousands of workers seeking to capture a British gold mine.

Say "salt" and Britain is tolerant. Say "gold" and Britain acts.

Aid In Grange Work

Goshen grange degree team went to a meeting of Milton grange Wednesday evening and put on the third and fourth degrees for that grange. There were 16 candidates in the class.

64 Roses for Admiral's 64 Years

This handsome basket of 64 rosebuds adorns the desk of Rear-Admiral Philip Andrews, commanding the first naval district and the Boston Navy Yard, in honor of his 64th birthday. The tribute came from officers of the first naval district. Rear-Admiral Andrews went on the retired list of the Navy following more than 47 years' service.

Government Working On New Tear Bombs

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The creation of a new tear gas bomb for police and other riot use, faster working and more powerful than the present type, was announced today by the war department.

The chemical warfare service of the army is now testing out the product which it developed after long experimentation.

The type is described as a "universal fast burning tear gas candle, which will produce an effective gas concentration so quickly that a rioter will be made helpless immediately." The new candles are used in the same manner as the hand grenades and burst with almost explosive violence.

PROMINENT OHIO JURIST EXPIRES

Judge Edgar B. Kinkead Dies At Home of Only Child In Atlanta, Ga.

COLUMBUS, April 10.—The body of Judge Edgar B. Kinkead, 67, whose 41 years of legal service included a score of years both on the bench and as professor of law at Ohio State university, was to be returned here today from Atlanta, Ga., where he died last night from heart disease.

Judge Kinkead died at the home of his only child, Mrs. W. M. Alexander, where he and his wife had gone after he gained a leave of absence from the Franklin county common pleas bench a year ago in February. Elected first in 1908, he was serving his fourth six year term which would have expired Jan. 1, 1931.

In one of his outstanding cases as a practicing attorney, Judge Kinkead was said to have been the first man to prosecute the Standard Oil company. In that action he represented the state of Ohio.

ISTANBUL, TURKEY.—To have crossed the threshold of the Seraglio palace, imperial harem, up to the time Turkey became a republic, would have cost an infidel's life. Gleaming white washes with this hard-water soap!

WHEN millions of women will use no laundry soap but Rinso... you can be sure there's a reason! And the reason is that Rinso washes clothes whiter, safely.

Rinso suds are thick, soapy, lasting—even in the hardest water. Dirt soaks out. Clothes come so snowy, even boiling isn't needed. The makers of 38 leading washing machines recommend Rinso for safety and for whiter clothes.

One cupful of this granulated hard-water soap gives more suds than two cupfuls of light-weight, puffed-up soaps—it's so compact. And no softener needed! Get the BIG package. Try it for dishes, too.

MARKETS

BULLS RULE MARKET

NEW YORK, April 10.—Bullish enthusiasm reached an intensity unparalleled this year in today's stock market. Scores of issues were rushed up 1 to 7 points to new high ground for the year, and sales in the first half hour exceeded 1,000,000 shares. The tape fell about half an hour behind trading, and recorded a series of individual transactions of 5,000 to 35,000 shares.

J. I. Case rose nearly 9 and Ingersoll Rand more than 6 points to a new high ground for the year. Columbian Carbon, Remington Rand, Westinghouse Electric and Eastman Kodak rose about 3 to 5 points. Shares gaining points or more included U. S. Steel, radio, Underwood Elliott, Electric Auto Lite, National Biscuit, Mack, Sparks, Wilmington, Gold Dust and corn products.

American Telephone, however, slipped back about 3 points in realizing, and United Aircraft lost 2 points. Call money renewed unchanged at 4 per cent.

CHICAGO, April 10.—(AP)—The Chicago board of trade will close Good Friday, but will open the Saturday following. The Chicago Stock Exchange governors will meet next Wednesday to determine their action.

TREASURY REPORT

WASHINGTON, April 10.—Treasury receipts for April 8 were $4,192,468.98; expenditures $7,370,133.28; balance $325,990.97.

WALL ST. BRIEFS

NEW YORK, April 10.—The Standard Oil Co. of New York has advanced the price of bulk gasoline in tank cars delivered in the port of New York area from 8-10 to 9-10 cents a gallon. Other refiners are now asking from 8 1/2 to 9 cents a gallon at nearby terminals.

The New York Stock exchange has promulgated a new ruling permitting investment trusts, the securities of which are listed on the exchange, to pay dividends on their common stocks, although there may be deficits in their balance sheets. A provision is included in the ruling that stockholders are to be notified at the time of the payment of the dividend, that a deficit exists.

The association of cotton textile merchants reporting March operations in standard cotton cloths states that sales for the month were 111 percent of production, and shipments 101.6 percent of production. Stocks on hand at the end of the month, while unfilled orders had increased 7.4 per cent.

Additional working capital amounting to $2,500,000 has been arranged for the Richfield Oil Co. of California through the sale to bankers of 100,000 shares of $25 par common stock.

DEATHS

MRS. GEORGE W. BAILEY

DAMASCUS, April 10.—Mrs. Unity Shreve Bailey, 80, wife of George W. Bailey, died of a heart attack following complications at 11:40 p. m. Wednesday at her home. She had been ill since last Friday.

Mrs. Bailey was born south of Damascus and had spent her life in this section. She was a member of the Friends church and the W. C. T. U.

On July 20, 1893, she was united in marriage with George W. Bailey, who survives, with four step-children. They are: Mrs. H. C. Baldwin, Phoenix, Ariz.; Ervin G. Easton, Pa.; William Narberth, Pa.; and Rev. Charles F. Bailey, of Salem, and one half sister, Rosa L. Shreve, California.

Funeral service will be held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday at the Friends church in charge of Rev. H. C. Phillips; interment in Damascus cemetery.

Friends may call at the home from 7 until 9 p. m. Friday.

MARY ANN STANLEY

Funeral service for Mrs. Mary Ann Stanley, 75, Beloit, R. D. 1, widow of John M. Stanley, who died Tuesday noon, will be held at 2:30 p. m. Friday at the Damascus Friends church in charge of Rev. Homer Phillips and Rev. John Pennington; interment in Damascus cemetery.

Mrs. Stanley was born near Washingtonville. She had spent most of her life in the vicinity of Beloit. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Frank Catell and Mrs. Harvey J. Galbreath, of Beloit; three sons, Vernon E., Vernon E., and Orlan D., all of Beloit; one sister, Miss Elizabeth Greenawalt, at home; two brothers, William H. Greenawalt, Beloit, and George P. Greenawalt, Alliance, and seven grandchildren.

MUSCLE SHOALS PROBLEM AIDED

Government Or Private Operation Terms Basis For Study Of Proposition

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The house military affairs committee plans to start executive sessions next Tuesday on the Norris resolution for government operation of Muscle Shoals with the intention of reporting it, much amended, to the house in a week or ten days.

In its present form house Republican leaders give it no chance of passage. Committee sentiment seemed to favor incorporating in the senate measure authority for the proposed muscle shoals corporation to lease the plant to any responsible private concern willing to meet certain terms to be stipulated in the bill.

The suggested amendment would require that the corporation spend a definite time, perhaps six months, in securing a lessee. Failing in that, it would undertake government operation, subject, however, to the provision that whenever subsequently a responsible bidder came along willing to take over the plant as a going concern, government operation would end.

Youth Killed In Attempted Holdup

PITTSBURGH, April 10.—Police today sought to establish the identity of a youthful bandit who was shot three times and killed instantly late last night when he and an accomplice attempted to hold up a drug store here.

Harry Bluestone, proprietor of the pharmacy, reached for his hip pocket and whipped out a gun when ordered to "stick 'em up." One of the youths, Wilson, fired at point-blank range and missed. Bluestone pressed the trigger three times, each shot hitting its target. The bandit crumpled to the floor, dead, while his confederate ran from the store.

The only identifying mark found on the slain bandit was the letter "F" etched in his belt buckle.

MARTIN, TENN.—Wanted, somebody to take the census in some islands in the Mississippi river. Double pay and boat fare. None of the 135 enumerators hereabouts will take the job. Most everyone knows why, says Supervisor Biggs, meaning that all federal employees, including "revenuers," look alike on the islands.

Prohibition Will Become Part of Test In Senate Voting

CHICAGO, April 19.—Prohibition, the hot potato of politics, has been tossed by James Hamilton Lewis, Democrat, to Congressman Keith Hanna McCormick at the major issue of their campaign for election next November to the United States senate.

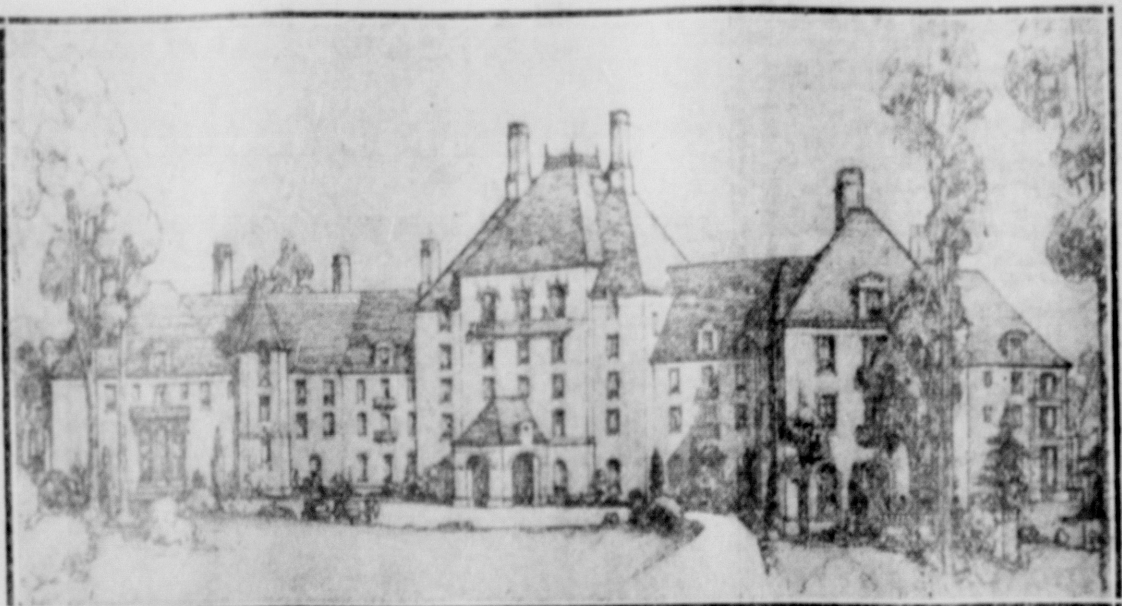

Lewis, a colonel in the Spanish-American war and senate whip in President Wilson's administration, cast off 12 years' retirement and gained the Democratic senatorial nomination without a single campaign effort. Mrs. McCormick, Mark Hanna's daughter and widow of the late Senator Medill McCormick, thrust aside Senator Charles S. Deneen and wrecked his Chicago-Cook county organization to head the Republican ticket this fall.

Mrs. McCormick, before returning to Washington yesterday, declared it was her opinion to the world that the Democratic senate would be a 200,000 plurality. Deneen, the fourteenth world court senator to meet defeat in the nation, accepted Mrs. McCormick's issue and lost. But Lewis, too, is opposed to the world court and in the senate he voted against Wilson's league of nations.

Lewis shot the question of "personal liberty" to the fore soon after Deneen congratulated Mrs. McCormick on her victory. "It is an issue from which I shall not allow any candidate—man or woman—to escape," the former-senator said.

In contrast, the politically-minded recalled Mrs. McCormick's campaign statement to the Anti-Saloon league that "I am both personally and politically dry." Her late husband was known as a wet.

Christian Science Sanatorium in California

SAN FRANCISCO. Under articles of incorporation already filed with the Secretary of State of California, permanent trustees took over on March 24 the ownership of the property and buildings which are to accommodate the Christian Science Benevolent Association for Pacific Coast. The Association, which will open its doors to guests about the middle of May, was established in accordance with Section 8 of Article I of the Manual of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Benevolent Association for Pacific Coast is the third large charitable institution established by The Mother Church, totaling an investment of over $4,000,000. The Christian Science Benevolent Association, located in Chestnut Hill, Mass., was chartered in 1915 and The Christian Science Pleasant View Home, located in Concord, N. H., in 1925.

While all three of these corporations are independent from a legal point of view they are under the control and supervision of The Christian Science Board of Directors.

The California property, known as Arden Wood, is a thickly timbered, 16 acre, piece of rolling land situated on the edge of San Francisco, its general location being between Twin Peaks and the Ocean. The Sanatorium is sheltered from the prevailing winds by the hill which forms the principal topographical feature of the property. No public roads or ways cross it, but paths will be arranged extending from the Sanatorium through the woods, making a feature of a small ravine which runs along the east boundary.

The Sanatorium, designed by Henry H. Guttersen, Architect, is of steel and reinforced concrete done in a modernized Breton style, with high central pavilion, tall classic French windows and steep-sloping, red tiled roof. It will contain accommodations for 120 guests and associates.

Within the last few weeks a substantial piece of property jutting into the principal tract, formerly held by the City of San Francisco for school purposes, has been purchased to secure additional quiet and freedom from outside disturbances.

The Board of Trustees of the San Francisco institution will be in constant touch with The Christian Science Board of Directors as are the Boards of the two New England institutions.

The three Trustees of the new corporation are Mrs. Gertrude M. Glass, George D. Greenwood, and Marvin R. Higgins. Wilson D. Clark has been appointed Manager-Treasurer. All of these officers have been actively interested in Christian Science work for many years.

Fisher, of Augusta; one son, Sherman L. of Canton; two sisters, Mrs. Laura Lamborn, Marion, O. and Mrs. Edith Greener, St. Louis, Mo.; seven grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday, followed by services at the Methodist church in charge of Rev. P. P. Boyle, pastor of the church. Burial was in West Lawn cemetery, Canton.

COSTS 85 CENTS A MONTH TO LOSE POUNDS OF UGLY FAT

THOUSANDS OF WOMEN
KNOW THIS IS TRUE

How would you like to lose 35 pounds of fat in a month and at the same time increase your energy and improve your health?

How would you like to lose unhealthy fat that you don't need and don't want and at the same time feel better than you have for years?

How would you like to lose your double chin and your too prominent abdomen and at the same time make your skin so clean and clear that it will compel admiration?

How would you like to get your weight down to normal and at the same time develop that urge for activity that makes work a pleasure and also gain in ambition and keenness of mind?

Get on the scales today and see how much you weigh—then get an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts which will last you for 4 weeks. Take one-half teaspoonful every morning in a glass of hot water and when you have finished the first bottle weigh yourself again.

Now you can laugh at the people who pay hundreds of dollars to lose a few pounds of fat—now you will know the pleasant way to lose unsightly fat and you'll also know that the 6 vitalizing salts of Kruschen Salts that your blood, nerves and glands must have to function properly—have presented you with glorious health.

After that you'll want to walk around and say to your friends: "One 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts is worth one hundred dollars of any fat person's money."

Leading druggists America over sell Kruschen Salts—you can always get it at J. H. Lease Drug Co. Three Stores.

THE PLACE TO SAVE MONEY ON BEAUTIFUL HOME FURNISHINGS

IF YOU have not already visited Cope's Furniture Mart—a real treat is in store for you.

In this new building we offer a particularly complete and attractive display. Instead of crowding beautiful Furniture and Furnishings together on the several floors of a narrow building, it is shown here in a vast building whose spaciousness permits pleasing display and therefore a more satisfactory selection.

Ample parking space is provided here at any time of the day or evening. Our policy of remaining open each week day evening is a great convenience that is already being praised by our customers. Drive over from Salem this evening and enjoy leisurely inspecting this beautiful display.

Remember—convenient credit terms can be arranged and in this improved, economical setting we offer lower prices on the very finest of Home Furnishings. The more you compare, the greater will be your appreciation of our ability to save you money.

Divorce Petitions

Through her counsel Metzger, McCarthy & McCorkhill, Johanna Falk has filed a divorce action in common pleas court against her husband, Frank Falk, of Cleveland. The couple were married in Roumania Nov. 22, 1911, and six children are of issue. Habitual drunkenness for three years and extreme cruelty are charged against the defendant. A hearing on a motion for temporary alimony will be heard by Judge W. F. Lones next Monday morning.

Cochran & Crawford of East Liverpool have filed a divorce petition for Roberta Ingram against her husband, Arch Ingram of Chester, W. Va. The petition charges that the defendant within one year after their marriage adopted a course of inhuman treatment against the inhuman. They were married at New Cumberland, W. Va., Sept. 3, 1922, and have one child, aged seven.

Mary Schrang of Miami, Fla., has been sued for divorce by her husband, Edward Schrang, the petition setting up that the defendant has been absent from her home since 1925. They were married at Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 26, 1904.

FLASHES OF LIFE

NEW YORK.—It's all work and no play for Senator Borah. Leaving for Europe Mrs. Borah said that as soon as congress adjourned the senator would go to Boise and rest. "He has fairly worn himself out. He takes his pleasures sadly." The senator forgot to obtain a French visa for his wife's passport.

LONDON.—Queen Mary is anxious to see the Prince of Wales married and in this respect alone he has failed to follow her advice. He has confidence in her judgment on every other subject. So says a biography of the queen by Mrs. Charlotte Cavendish, a colonel's widow.

NEW YORK.—In order to sleep undisturbed by thirsty night owls ringing doorbells some folks living in the West Fifties have a placard over the doorway reading: "This is a private house."

Counsel for Harry K. Thaw revealed one problem caused by speaking when he was arguing in court over a verdict against Thaw obtained by a night club hostess.

WASHINGTON.—Boys and girls at the Hoover mountain school, Dark Hollow, Va., are to learn from stamps. Philip H. Ward, Jr., of Philadelphia, has sent several thousand of foreign issues to be forwarded to the school. He believes that children who collect stamps are more proficient in geography, history and government.

TRENTON, N. J.—The state supreme court has upheld a verdict of $2,000 for Miss Josephine Sica, who has a scar on one calf from an accident on a bus. Says the decision: "In the present style of dress, including the height of the skirt and thinness of the hose, it cannot be said that such a scar is either in an obscure place or not, subject to observation and consequent embarrassment."

HOMEWORTH

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Mangus who has been ill is improved.

John Sanders has returned to Pennsylvania.

Miss Emma Benner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Benner who has been in the Alliance City hospital has been removed to her home north of Homeworth.

JOHN W. MARTIN

John W. Martin, 70, justice of the peace of New Franklin the past 22 years, died at his home at 10 o'clock Sunday night.

He had been in failing health the past two years but had attended to his duties as justice of the peace until recently.

Mr. Martin was born in New Franklin and had spent the greater part of his life there. He was a retired school teacher, having taught for 40 years. He was a member of the Paris township school board for six years, also a member of the Methodist church.

Surviving are his wife, Ella, at

SPRINGER WILL ADDRESS CLUB IN COLUMBIANA

Rotarians to Play Hosts To Basketball Teams Next Tuesday

COLUMBIANA, April 10.—C. E. Yacobi of Youngstown, manager of the industrial development department of the Pennsylvania and Ohio Power and Light Co., was the speaker at the meeting of the Columbian Rotary club, Yacobi told of the various affairs which are investigated by an industrial concern in selecting a location and how a town such as Columbian can assist in getting new industries.

President H. W. Hammond read an invitation from the Canton Rotary club to attend an inter-city meeting April 17, at which Ray Knoppel of New York City, will be the guest of honor.

The meeting next week will be on Tuesday evening at the Christian church, supper being served by the ladies of that church. The members of the Columbian high school boys and girls basketball teams will be the guests of the club. Parents or friends of the players may also attend if they so desire by purchasing their own tickets. Principal Wilbur Springer of Salem high school will be the speaker. Springer is the present president of the Salem Rotary club.

Officers Nominated
The Rotary club nominating committee made the following report of nominations for the coming election of Rotary officials, naming two candidates for each office, as follows:

Popular Powder of Beautiful Women

Beauties who guard their complexion use MELLO-GLO Face Powder only. Famous for purity—its coloring matter is approved by the government. The skin never looks puffy or flaky. It spreads more smoothly and produces a youthful bloom. Made by a new French process. MELLO-GLO Face Powder stays on longer. J. H. Lease Drug Co. Three-Stores. Adv.

For president, Brian Mowen and H. R. Riddle; vice-president, J. A. Crawford, Leo E. Holloway; secretary, Olaf V. Todd, Ray V. Harrell; treasurer, Evan Reller, Chas. B. Fuhrman; directors, Elmer T. Copic, C. W. Oriswald, W. E. L. Donbar, Dick Fitzpatrick.

The senior class of Columbian high, which numbers about 37, has selected a comedy, "The Charn School," as their class play, and this is planned for production on Friday evening, May 16. The annual junior-senior banquet has been postponed from May 2 to May 23. The stage "every pupil" test was given Tuesday in the high school and upper grades. On May 9, the annual "open house" will be observed.

At the meeting of the Columbian board of education Monday Mrs. Zetta Lyon was appointed to take the annual school enumeration. This is to be done between May 1 and 24.

Social Notes
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barrow entertained Rosemary club associates Friday evening at their home, N. Main st. The evening was spent playing cards. The affair was preceded by a supper served in the Presbyterian church dining room by members of the L. L. class.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cole, N. Elm st. were: Clyde Cole and daughter, Evelyn, of Niles; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Moody, Youngstown; and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cole, Beaver Falls.

The Progressive Workers club will hold its April business and social meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ed. Farmer, south of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lower and son, Frederick spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Gertler, Woodfield.

Mrs. Catherine Sponeller is in a very serious condition following a stroke of paralysis Sunday at the home of her son, H. S. Sponeller, and family, east of town.

Lowell Hancy has been absent from his duties at the Lecher grocery for some time. Willard Mather is serving as substitute.

Mrs. Effie Alphon of Thornville is visiting for several days with relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Charles Geiger, Akron, spent the weekend with his mother, Mrs. Mary Geiger, east of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harsh entertained relatives from Uhrichsville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Elton entertained her sister, Miss Moore from Wellsville over the week-end.

Members of the New Idea Club and their husbands held a farewell party for Mrs. Fred Hines at her home Saturday evening. A covered dish supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Hines have sold their farm and will move to Wisconsin.

WOODLAND, CAL. — Brothers, born and raised in Minnesota, met for the first time in 27 years at a service club luncheon here. They are Dr. Milton Ira Jones of Willmette, Ill., well-known chemist, speaker for the day, and F. H. Jones, of Oakland, an engineer.

Neuritis Chased From My System By Owa-Ton-Na

Rheumatic Pains and Stomach Disorders Caused Suffering For Several Years

Mrs. Susan Breckenridge, Route 1 East Canton, Ohio, said: "For several years I suffered with those severe pains in my shoulder, side and knees. Sometimes I could hardly get around the pain was so severe. I have had to take laxatives almost constantly. As a result of this, my stomach got in bad condition. Food disagreed with me and caused gas which often made me short of breath and caused heart palpitation. I seemed to be tired and worn out most of the time. Often headaches and dizzy spells added to my suffering."

"Owa-Ton-Na was recommended to me so highly that I felt possibly it would help me and I wish now I had used it several years ago. It has corrected my stomach disorders, my appetite has improved wonderfully and I can sit down and enjoy a good meal without fear of having gas and bloating 'spells' afterwards. Headaches and dizzy spells are gone and my bowels act regularly. Gradually pains started to disappear and although I could hardly believe it at times, I don't know what an ache or pain is now."

MRS. SUSAN BRECKENRIDGE

Owa-Ton-Na certainly does whip up a sluggish system and restores lost energy and strength. I gladly recommend it to other sufferers." Owa-Ton-Na is sold in Salem at the J. H. Lease Drug Co. Three-Stores.—Adv.

MOVIES

"Bring Up Father in Gay New York," the latest George McManus musical comedy based on the cartoons of the same title will be the attraction at the Grand Theatre, for one evening performance tonight.

This exceptionally diverting offering which is said to be better than ever. All the favorites will appear and their antics, aided by a bevy of old and new friends, are sure to find response.

It is said to be resplendent with new and novel ideas, big surprises, screams, innovations and scenic achievement. Pretty girls in glittering costumes and colorful raiment are an outstanding feature, aided and abetted by a supporting cast of really capable fun makers, singers, dancers and entertainers.

A supporting cast of about twenty five people, including a dozen pretty young women, all selected for their particular talents and ability to amuse. At least twenty song hits will be offered, along with other bits of originality, novelties, innovations and specialties that are part and parcel of the production.

"WEDDING BELLS"

At The State

H. B. Warner and Lois Wilson are seen together again in the leading roles of "Wedding Bells."

The pair are proving one of the screen's most popular "teams" in mature, sophisticated roles. They have appeared together recently in "The Gamblers," "The Furies" and "Conquest," as well as in other productions. Both have been on the screen for several years.

"Wedding Bells" is the story of an unscrupulous charmer who looked upon all men as fair game for her wiles. Her sister's friends were especially favored by her. Olive Borden plays this role of the exotic but shallow charmer, while Miss Wilson is the artist sister. Warner is the prize catch and the man over whom the two sisters wage their battle of feminine wiles.

Weather Outlook

The air pressure is now normal or above over all eastern and northwestern sections and the weather is mostly fair in all parts of the field of observation. The air pressure is relatively low over the middle plains and southwestern districts with some cloudiness in the Rocky mountain and northern plains states.

The prevailing temperatures are now above normal in practically all parts of the country. Notably so over north-central portions. The temperatures have risen from 10 to 14 degrees over the Ohio valley and are now rising rather rapidly.

The indications are the weather will continue fair with a further though slight, rise in temperature in this vicinity during the next 24 hours.

Rock Throwing Title Awarded

CHICAGO, April 10.—Joe Birmingham is the champion three-year-old rock thrower of Chicago and points west.

Joe threw a rock through the window of Mrs. Louise Bolak's house. Mrs. Bolak didn't know little Joe did it. She thought it was big Joe, the father, and she had him arrested.

When he told Judge John Lupe that his little three-year-old had done the throwing, Mrs. Bolak said the baby couldn't even lift the stone, let alone heave it.

"Bring in the offspring," said Judge Lupe, "and we shall see."

The baby toddled in, walked over to the rock which was exhibit A, picked it up and heaved off to hurl. He was aiming at a particularly attractive window pane at the rear of the courtroom.

"Case dismissed," said the court hurriedly, "and somebody grab that rock!"

Keep youth longer!

cleanse the system of poisons

Two of the great enemies to youth and vitality are delayed elimination and intestinal poisons. To keep yourself free from both these common difficulties will help you to stay young.

With the use of Nujol you can do it too. For Nujol absorbs body poisons and carries them off, preventing their absorption by the body. Nujol also softens the waste matter and brings about normal evacuation. It is harmless; contains no drugs or medicine. It won't cause gas or griping pains, or affect the stomach or kidneys. Every corner druggist has Nujol. Make sure you get the genuine. Look for the Nujol bottle with the label on the back that you can read right through the bottle. Don't delay, get Nujol today.

Famous Flier Hurt In Auto Accident

SAN ANTONIO, TEX., April 10.—First Lieut. Lester J. Maitland, who commanded the first airplane to fly from the Pacific coast to Hawaii, today was in an army hospital here suffering from a crushed chest and cuts on the face, the result of an accident yesterday in which his automobile was struck by a bus.

The accident occurred a few hours after his wife, Mrs. Ruth Thurston Maitland, was granted a divorce at Las Vegas, Nevada. She charged nagging and other mental cruelties. The Maitlands have one child, five years old.

Large Crowd Expected To Attend First Annual Athletic Banquet

ANNUAL INTER-CLASS TRACK MEET SCHEDULED HERE SATURDAY

Boxing Bouts, Speech By Hans Wagner Will Be Features Of Event

Boxing bouts, award of trophies to winning basketball teams and a speech by Hans Wagner will be features of the banquet of Salem sporting fans and players at the Memorial building auditorium at 6:30 p. m. today. One of the largest crowds to have ever gathered together for a similar occasion is expected at the affair.

Four boxing bouts, three of them involving Salem amateurs, will be staged. Award of championship trophies will be made to the Golden Eagle and McArthur Florist Class A league champions together with the award of a cup, emblematic of the Class B title, to the Holy Trinity Lutheran church cage team.

Homer Bow, editor of The News, will be master of ceremonies. Bow is chairman of the city athletic arbitration committee composed of James Primm, Donald "Pete" Scullion and A. E. Beardmore. The board arranged the banquet in conjunction with Joe M. Kelley, director of the Memorial building.

Les Eckhart, Louis Quinn and Duckey Yutz, local simon-pures, will do battle for one or more rounds with products of the Evans stable of Lisbon. Each of the bouts will be of three rounds. A fourth battle will be staged by a duo from the county seat dubbed "Amos 'n' Andy" and will weigh in at no more than 80 pounds.

Wagner To Referee
The fights will be held on the stage of the main hall of the building with Wagner acting as third man to add to the color of the event. Each will be to no-decision.

Ten members from each of the Class A and the Class B teams will receive miniature basketballs for their victorious campaigns in the 1929-30 cage season. The Golden Eagle team will receive gold charms as city champions by virtue of their victory over the McArthur team in the city series. The Poses, runner-ups, will be awarded silver charms.

Salem High school officials, J. S. Alan, superintendent, Wilbur J. Springer, principal; Floyd W. Stone, head athletic coach; Harold C. McCord, assistant coach and Harold M. Williams, faculty manager of athletics, have been invited to attend with the high school basketball team. The winner and second-place team in the city grade school league have also been extended invitations.

Outlook for Track Poor at Mt. Union

ALLIANCE, April 10.—Of the spring sports, track offers the poorest outlook at Mount Union college. Athletic Director John M. Thorpe discovered today when he started to check up veteran material.

Inclement weather and snow prevented an early start on out-of-door workouts this week and holds little promise today for an early let up.

Freddy Cope, famed long distance runner and record maker, is not with the Mount this year because of his graduation last June. Burke and Hunsberger were similarly lost last year.

Lining up for various events in track Coach Thorpe has the following varsity men: Leland Slutz, senior, half and quarter; "Bob" McCallum, junior; Clyde Wiley, junior and Paul Perkins, junior, runners in the mile and two mile. Carl Devore, junior, hurdles; Evan Morris, junior, in the dashes; Charles Craig, junior, in the jumps; Lorin Lindamood, junior, discus; "Bill" Hyden, senior, and "Bob" McCallum, junior, three string men on pole vault.

COLUMBUS, April 10.—The Red Sox were enroute to Boston today minus two decisions. The Columbus American Association club yesterday added insult to injury by winning their second straight from the American leaguers here, 7 to 6. After the Sox had tied at 6-all with three runs in the seventh, Danny Boone singled to send Grabtree home with the winning run in the ninth.

SPRINGFIELD, April 10.—Herman Reark of Dover, junior, guard on Wittenberg college basketball team, will captain the quintet next season, he was elected last night.

Another Quick Victory Scored By New Konjola

Years of Indigestion Brought To Happy End By New And Different Medicine

MR. C. L. MADDOX

"Konjola benefited me so much that I praise it every chance I get," said Mr. C. L. Maddox, 2321 Oak Ridge drive, Dayton. "For years I was a victim of indigestion. I could not eat anything without suffering afterward. This trouble kept me awake at night and told on my general health. Bileous attacks made life miserable and constipation made me tired and worn-out all the time."

"I heard about Konjola and then decided to give it a trial. Surprising as it seems, just six bottles of this medicine made me feel like a different person. Konjola went right to work, cleansing and invigorating my system. My digestion was restored and now I eat what I please without suffering afterward. My bowels became as regular as clock-work. Bileous spells are things of the past. Konjola is indeed, the world's finest medicine."

Konjola is a medicine that, when given a fair trial—from six to eight bottles—easily and harmlessly eliminates the common ills of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, and rheumatism, neuritis and nervousness.

Konjola is sold in Salem, Ohio at J. H. Lease Drug Co. Three Stores and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.—Adv.

Golfing Added to Sports at Mount

ALLIANCE, April 10.—Golf is being added to the athletic department of Mount Union college and will be coached by John M. Thorpe, head athletic coach of the college.

Much interest is being shown in this new sport which has never been taught at Mount Union and which is offered at very few colleges in Ohio. The only other of the smaller colleges of the state that has golf is Kenyon. Ten men have already signed for the course although practices have not yet been called.

Women students are enthusiastic about taking the course and it is likely a group will be formed for them.

Four matches are scheduled and will be played as soon as weather conditions will permit. Two matches with Oberlin and two with Kenyon are now arranged and others are pending.

SPRINGFIELD, April 10.—West Point's all-American quarterback, Christian "Red" Cagle, has enrolled in the Wittenberg school for coaches, to be conducted by Bob Zupke of Illinois and "Phog" Allen of Kansas, June 16 to 29.

THE DAY In Sports

CAGE BANQUET TONIGHT
TRACK MEET SATURDAY

TWO IMPORTANT events are scheduled for Salem sport fans this week, the first the banquet at the Memorial building tonight and the second, the outdoor interclass meet at Reilly Stadium.

A large gathering of fans should be congregated at the former affair while no persuasion will be needed to bring them to the track meet. This latter event, the battle for supremacy among the high school's four classes, is always one greeted with interest because it generally gives fans an indication of what to expect of the team during the coming season.

If only non-lettermen participate in the track meet fans will not be given the chance to jot down a great deal on their dopesheets but then there are great possibilities that it will bring out some promising youngsters who have had no great amount of varsity experience.

The banquet should be a great occasion for the city's athletic fans. There will be entertainment, a lot of good fun and a chance to see some good boxing bouts. Three Salem lads will perform in the fistie battles.

DISCUSSING Warren Dickerson's success as cage mentor at Sharon High last night, it was brought out that previous to coming to Salem a decade or so ago, he coached at Leetonia High. While coaching at the latter school he sustained probably the worst defeat ever administered to a Dickerson-coached quintet and it was handed out by a Salem team. The score was only 101-4. Dickerson's quintet scoring only four foul goals during the entire contest.

Salem High's 1930 Grid Slate Ready

Salem High's 1930 football schedule was announced today by Faculty Manager Harold M. Williams. It follows:

Sept. 20—Canton McKinley there.
Sept. 26—Akron West, here.
Oct. 3—Leetonia, here.
Oct. 10—Warren, here.
Oct. 17—New Philadelphia here.
Oct. 24—Youngstown East, here.
Nov. 1—Wellsville, there.
Nov. 8—Youngstown South, there.
Nov. 14—Lisbon, here.
Nov. 21—Alliance, Mount field.

The Leetonia, Warren, New Philadelphia, Youngstown East and Lisbon games will be played at Reilly stadium under the new floodlights. The Alliance game, on Thanksgiving day, will be played at Alliance for the first time in years.

Fight Results

NEW YORK—Bob Olin, Brooklyn light heavyweight, defeated George La Rocca, New York (6).
Frankie Marchese, New York lightweight, defeated Lou Mampert, New York (6).

Eric Holmberg, New York middleweight, knocked out Frankie Brooks, Allentown, Pa. (1).
MONTREAL—Pete Sanstol, Norway, stopped Ollie Bartlett, Montreal (8).

Salem High Athletes To Vie For Honors In Outdoor Competition

The annual outdoor inter-class track and field meet, the first spring competition on Salem High's 1930 schedule, will be held at Reilly athletic stadium Saturday.

Athletes from each of the four classes will compete for the school championship track and field title which last year was won by the sophomore combination. Because of their title-winning performance of 1929, athletes who this year will compete under the banner of the junior class are favored to annex laurels. This outfit last year won by a narrow margin of four and one-half points, losing out juniors by a 48 to 43½ score.

The senior class finished a poor third in 1929, scoring only 32 points while the freshmen put up a plucky battle and were just three points behind the four-year men.

Will Indicate Prospects
The meet is expected to give Coaches Floyd Stone and H. C. McCord a fair indication of their varsity team's strength in competition during regular meets. Lettermen are distributed among various classes fairly evenly and a stiff battle is anticipated among the sophomores, juniors and seniors. The fresh teams, without much experience in track events, is not viewed as a strong contender.

Stone and McCord have been forced to work with their prospects under adverse weather conditions this week and haven't yet, been able to report the progress hoped for. According to the family almanac spring arrived here some time ago but Old Sci as yet hasn't been able to chase away cold breezes hanging over from King Winter with much success, handicapping the tracklads greatly in their efforts to gain midseason form.

Only non-lettermen may be allowed to compete in the meet in order to give more encouragement to lads with lesser experience. If this is the case it will be a battle involving each of the four classes as the outstanding stars of all will be kept inactive.

NEW YORK—Mrs. Ruth Elder Camp is to take the part of Juliet, Shakespearean heroine, in a society pageant for charity.

THE HOME KITCHEN

By Jeannette Young Norton

Almonds kept as a staple on the shelf are a marvelous help. For they are not merely garnish to an occasional dessert. They may be used in a variety of ways, adding interest to very simple dishes. Almonds may be combined with other foods in a delicious soup, or as a vegetable, or as part of the main dish. There is even an excellent and wholesome drink with an almond basis, which makes milk palatable to many who do not like it straight.

Almond Punch

- 1 lb. almonds
- 2 quarts of milk
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Blanch almonds by dropping in boiling water, then remove skin and pound. Place in a saucepan with milk, let come to a boil slowly and add sugar. Set aside to cool, then strain, add vanilla and place on ice until ready to use. An egg may be beaten and added to each glass of the mixture if it is desired to make the drink more nourishing.

Salted Almonds

- 1 pound almonds
- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Place almonds in boiling water, then remove skin, and dry lightly on a soft towel. Heat oil in a large shallow pan, then add the nuts and sprinkle salt over all. Let stand for an hour, then put in a slow oven. Shake the pan frequently so that the nuts brown evenly, and they should be ready in about 20 minutes.

Carrot and Almonds

- 1 bunch carrots
- 1/2 cup blanched almonds
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup of milk
- 1/2 teaspoon salt

Cook the carrots until tender, then cut into strips. Melt the butter, rub in the flour and gradually add the milk, stirring constantly until smooth. Then add the almonds cut in halves and the carrots and the seasoning.

Celery may be combined with almonds, or turnips, squash or okra. Instead of making a thick white sauce as above, one cup of thick cream may be heated and the vegetables and almonds then added.

The Chinese make a delicious omelet by adding the whole almonds to the egg mixture and cooking together. A more elaborate omelet, suitable for dessert is as follows:

Almonds Omelet, Sweet

- 6 eggs
- 1/2 cup chopped almonds
- 1 tablespoon whipped cream
- 1/2 tablespoon currant jelly
- 1 tablespoon powdered sugar
- 1 tablespoon butter
- 1 tablespoon water

Mix together the whipped cream, chopped almonds and currant jelly.

Today's Pattern

THE printed cotton frock grows in popularity as the season advances. Note the charming details of the model shown today... the rounded neck with dainty yoke and graceful jabot, the snug hip band and flared skirt that join in upward curve.

Design 1877 may be made of printed silk or cotton with equally charming results... dimity, pique, shantung, batiste, etc. The yoke, cuffs and jabot are cut from contrasting fabric, preferably pique. Colored binding is used extensively this season for dainty finish of seams.

This pattern may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 14 requires 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch fabric and 1/2 yard trimming.

No dress-making experience is necessary to make this model with our pattern. Yardage for every size, and simple, exact instructions are given.

know that by a simple comparison.

Blending Is An Art

But his chief complaint was against our too crude salads. "Yesterday," he parried the subject dogmatically, "I had a beautifully served luncheon at a smart restaurant. The main dish was a shrimp salad. Shrimp is delicious, but its flavor is very mild, and one cannot serve it with every kind of vegetable without endangering the loss of flavor. One should not even put pepper on shrimp, as it is too powerful. A dash of curry is sufficient seasoning and not so strong as to overwhelm the shrimp. But this particular salad of shrimp was recognizable only to the eye as such. The flavor was completely dominated by the other ingredients, which consisted of a strong mayonnaise, some capers, and will you believe it many slices of pineapple, which has perhaps the most pronounced flavor of all native fruits."

As a matter of fact, the blending of flavors is the superlative art in cooking. It's not to be learned from books alone. Partly it's a gift, and partly it comes from conscientious experiment and careful observation.

HOME-MAKING HELPS

By Wanda Barton

Heard not once but a dozen times at a recent antique exhibition: "I don't buy antiques because they're old, but because they're beautiful." Which is a sort of defense against suspicions of pursuing a fad. Many persons go into raptures over the antiques, their enthusiasm being influenced largely by the number of wormholes, worn spots or general decrepitude of the object. All that is old is not necessarily admirable—although some ugly pieces merit a place of honor because of their historic associations.

It's at a general display of miscellaneous antiques that one has the best opportunity for comparison and judgment. There are too many really beautiful things which deserve preservation and reproduction as closely as possible to the original. Pewter is one of the old-fashioned styles that has much to recommend its revival. It is simple, mellow and does not require the watchful polishing due to silver.

When Pewter Is Best

And pewter has become modish with a vengeance. Every kind of dish and utensil—serving plates, mugs, bowls, salt and pepper shakers, trays, candlesticks, pitchers, and so on—can now be obtained in pewter. Nevertheless, pewter does not fit everywhere. A single handsome piece may be appropriate decoration in any sort of room, but where it comes to using quantities of pewter for a complete table service, for example, then fitness with other furnishings is a consideration. Pewter is at its best with simple furniture—plain waxed maple, pine or oak, and in a country house.

In fact, many of the most admired pieces of old-fashioned decoration seem to belong in the country homes that are not too pretentious. Welsh dressers, corner cupboards, patchwork quilts, hooked rugs, the Currier & Ives prints—these were originally used in country houses and were fitting. The mere fact that genuine antiques of this sort are very costly does not necessarily make them desirable accessories to a luxurious apartment.

In the Children's Room

With a few possible exceptions, the children's room may well be furnished with copies of the antique, because so many of them seem fitting. Probably the prudent New Englanders anticipated the rough-and-tumble wear that all furniture would receive in a household containing children, and nothing could be permanently marred or injured in any way by childish carelessness. Also there are many charming miniature reproductions of big pieces—Governor Winthrop desks made in a size small enough to rest on a top table; Windsor chairs, the right shape and curves, and in various sizes for the smallest person and even for her doll.

When it comes to the really luxurious pieces, the masterpieces of the Adam Brothers, of Sheraton & Hepplewhite, the fine lacquer work, fragile porcelains, rare woods and carvings, many moderns admit that there is little in contemporary art to compare with it. Some fine antiques have not yet been excelled by our present-day craftsmen—they bow before the older artisans, as our modern artists before the old masters. Not everyone can own genuine antiques but there is a growing appreciation of the next best thing—good reproductions of the fine lines and patterns.

And in many families there may be found, perhaps hidden in a garret or storeroom, some forgotten bit left over from a previous generation, which, rescued today, will be found in the height of fashion.

"Deaf Mute" Beggar Rebukes Policeman

CHICAGO, April 10. — James McGrath was arrested for begging with a deaf and dumb sign hanging around his neck.

When he was hailed into court for arraignment he startled the judge and spectators by exclaiming: "Policemen are not fair!"

When the court recovered from its surprise, McGrath was fined for obtaining money under false pretenses.

McGrath paid the fine from a big roll of bills which he carried in a trouser pocket.

When Babies CRY

Babies will cry, often for no apparent reason. You may not know what's wrong, but you can always give Castoria. This soon has your little one comforted; if not, you should call a doctor. Don't experiment with medicines intended for the stronger systems of adults! Most of those little upsets are soon soothed away by a little of this pleasant-tasting, gentle-acting children's remedy that children like.

It may be the stomach, or may be the little bowels. Or in the case of older children, a sluggish, constipated condition. Castoria is still the thing to give. It is almost certain to clear up any minor ailment, and could by no possibility do the youngest child the slightest harm. So it's the first thing to think of when a child has a coated tongue; won't play, can't sleep, is fretful or out of sorts. Get the genuine; it always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the package.

Automatic Gas Heat requires no attention

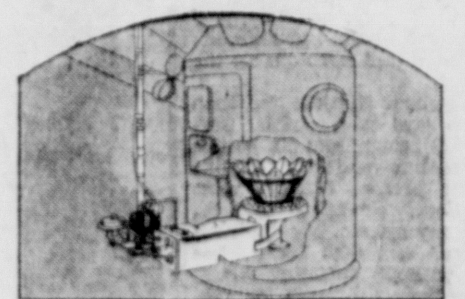

"Taking care of the furnace" during cold weather is quite a problem when the furnace burns less efficient fuels than gas.

Visits must be cut short and it is impossible to take extended trips because the furnace fire soon will be out and there may be a sudden change in the temperature.

With Gas, The Automatic Fuel, you can be away from home for an indefinite period and when you return the house will be warm and comfortable.

Then, too, Gas heat is clean heat. An automatic gas heating unit requires no attention from the time it is lighted in the Fall until it is turned off when warm weather arrives.

CHURCH SPEAKS AT CLUB EVENT

Health Commissioner of County Gives Address
In Leetonia

LEETONIA, April 10.—The Kiwanis club held its weekly meeting at the M. E. parish house with Dr. T. T. Church, county health officer, the speaker of the evening.

His subject was "Blue Ribbon Campaigns Among School Children." Dr. Church asked the cooperation of the Kiwanis club in an attempt to establish a standard of health among school children and if they come up to a standard mentally, physically and in conduct, they will be called "Blue Ribbon Children."

Early recollections were given this week by C. S. Anglemeyer and A. H. Belthart in honor of their birth days. A resolution of sympathy for the serious accident and commendation of his ability to fulfill his duty was passed in honor of Deputy Sheriff James Elliott, of Lisbon. The attendance prize, donated by F. B. Hollinger was awarded to L. Z. Wender.

Members of the Presbyterian church held their annual congregational meeting at the church Monday evening. Rev. J. D. McBride is pastor. All the societies of the church gave encouraging reports. The Christian Endeavor society under the direction of R. E. Fowler, public speaking teacher of Leetonia High school presented a play entitled "Fifty-Fifty." Following are those who had parts: Mary Mitchell, John McBride, Marie Rueff, Cornelia Lewis, Jean Crothers, Mildred Jerome, Ruth Prior, Arthur and Billy Prior, Ralph Patterson, Kenneth and Donald Falls.

The Dorcas society of St. Paul's Lutheran church was entertained at the home of Mrs. L. F. Siegle on Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in needlework. The business served lunch.

C. E. Holt and sons Eldon Jr. and Marcus were Cleveland business callers Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pifer, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Powell of Akron and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Needham of Columbiana were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hall.
